Thought for the week:

Should we pay taxes? That's the question the Jewish leaders put to Jesus to trip him up. In those days, taxation resourced the Roman army and the lifestyle of the leaders – it was not a fair system. But taxation does not have to be unfair. It can be a powerful tool for creating a just society that gives equal weight to the needs of everyone, following the principles of God's justice. If a system of taxation fails to live up to this, Jesus' challenge remains as relevant as ever.

Blessings, Caroline

Morning Prayer at 9am and Eucharist at 9.30am continue on Tuesday mornings. Evening Prayer is on Fridays at 4pm. All welcome.

“Coffee, Chat and Toddlers”: everyone is welcome to enjoy some fellowship and time together from 10 - 11.30am on Tuesday mornings in the Lower Hall.

Friendship Club meets on Tuesday afternoons in the Lower Hall. This week will be the anniversary lunch and celebration.

Memorial Service: our annual Thanksgiving and Commemoration service for those who have died is on next Sunday (25th October) at 4pm. Everyone is very welcome, whether your bereavement is recent or many years ago. There will be an opportunity to light a candle. Please give names you would like read during the service to Ruth Treves Brown by 21st October.

On Sunday 1st November, All Saints Day, very appropriately we shall have a special service to welcome several people in our congregation into membership at All Saints'. It will be followed by a Bring and Share Lunch in the Lower Hall. All are welcome to join us. A sign-up sheet is available for the bring and share lunch – on the welcome table. Could you please indicate whether you are bringing a savoury or a sweet item (or both!) so that we don't have to eat 20 apple pies. If anyone is able to assist in the kitchen before or afterwards, could you please let David Pain know.

Church Garden News: there is now a planting area for strawberries in front of the rhubarb which leaves a number of unwanted plants and plantlets which in due course I will add to the compost bin. Do help yourself if you would like them. You will find them amongst the herbs, dotted along the narrow border against the fence and possibly in the raised bed. Empty plant pots available in the old style dustbin. Do take or ask me.
Sylvia Smith

Food pantry: a reminder that weekly donations to the All Saints' Food Pantry (open every day via the cupboard in the church porch) are very much appreciated, as there continues to be a regular uptake of the items we offer.

Service streaming: the link to watch the service on Sundays is: <https://www.youtube.com/@Allsaintshp4/live>
